

2022 LEN EUROPEAN JUNIOR OPEN WATER SWIMMING CHAMPIONSHIPS

3rd – 5th June 2022, Setubal, Portugal

INVITATION POLICY

Introduction

This Policy provides the avenues by which an athlete can be invited to represent Ireland at the 2022 LEN European Junior Open Water Swimming Championships. These avenues (or "Invitation Stages") are described in further detail below

Performance Objective

The objective of this Policy is to ascertain the level of Open Water swimming talent that exists in Junior Open Water swimming amongst athletes who are eligible to represent Ireland and to provide a competitive development opportunity at international level for such athletes who are on a positive improvement trajectory within 10km Open Water swimming. This will help Swim Ireland to benchmark existing Irish Open Water talent against European counterparts

This Policy will only apply if the 2022 LEN European Junior Open Water Swimming Championships are held on the existing dates of 3rd-5th June 2022 and/or are held in the existing location of Setubal, Portugal. If there is any postponement of the 2022 LEN European Junior Open Water Swimming Championships beyond this period and/or a change of location, a new Invitation Policy will be required

This Policy sets out the Swim Ireland process for inviting athletes, coaches and/or team managers to:

- (a) be considered eligible for nomination for invitation to enter;*
- (b) be nominated for invitation to enter and;*
- (c) be selected to represent Ireland at the 2022 LEN European Junior Open Water Swimming Championships*

Athletes, coaches and team managers must satisfy certain criteria to be considered eligible for nomination for invitation

In addition to the criteria for eligibility for invitation, there are qualification requirements which an athlete needs to meet to be considered for invitation by the National Selection Panel

The role of the National Performance Director is to compile the names of athletes who meet the criteria for nomination for invitation and to make recommendations to the National Selection Panel

The National Selection Panel is the expert panel, as defined in the 'Swim Ireland Invitation Panel Terms of Reference' which selects athletes to the Ireland National Team

The Performance Senior Leadership Team comprises of the National Performance Director, the National Performance Pathway Manager, the Head of Physical Preparation, the Head of Performance Analysis, the Performance Manager and the National Centre Head Coaches

LEN is the Ligue Europeenne de Natation and is the European federation/governing body for aquatic sports

FINA is the Federation Internationale de Natation and is the international federation/governing body administering international competition in aquatic sports. LEN is affiliated to FINA

9. Ireland National Team Obligations (General)

In accepting an invitation to represent Ireland in the 2022 LEN European Junior Open Water Swimming Championships, athletes accept and agree that training with/competing for an Ireland representative team takes precedence over training for/competing in any other competition, including that for another Team/Club or University programme in Ireland or anywhere in the world. Swim Ireland require any athlete, coach or team manager who has been selected to represent Ireland at the 2022 LEN European Junior Open Water Swimming Championships to meet and fulfil a suite of obligations, where non-adherence is subject to Section 13. Swim Ireland oblige all selected athletes and, where relevant, all declared coaches/team managers to:

- i. Agree not to disclose any selected representative name to the press or any other media (including their own social media) until Swim Ireland have themselves announced this to the press and other media
- ii. Complete, sign and comply with the Swim Ireland National Team Code of Conduct
- iii. Complete a Swim Ireland Medical Form prior to competing at the 2022 LEN European Junior Open Water Swimming Championships Commit to the values of the Swim Ireland National Programme Athlete Charter
- iv. Abide by the Uniform Policy, the Media Policy, the Appearances Policy, the Betting, Gambling & Integrity Policy and the Sports Supplements Policy of the Swim Ireland National Team
- v. Comply with Swim Ireland and FINA swimwear regulations

10. Swim Ireland Performance Provisions to Athletes

- i. A holistic bursary per athlete of up to €750.00 will be provided by Swim Ireland for each athlete accepting their invitation to the 2022 LEN European Junior Open Water Swimming Championships to assist with the costs associated with travel (international & domestic) subsistence costs and hotel costs. The holistic bursary is to support the costs of the athlete and the supporting team (coach and/or team manager). Each bursary will be pooled and all costs split evenly across athletes accepting their invitation to the National Team
- ii. Event entries to the 2022 LEN European Junior Open Water Swimming Championships will be made by Swim Ireland. Swim Ireland will pay for any associated entry cost to LEN
- iii. Swim Ireland will make the hotel arrangements on behalf of the athlete, coach and team manager once the preferred hotel from those offered by LEN has been selected
- iv. All Team uniform and kit (including a racing suit) will be provided by Swim Ireland. Athletes accepting a racing suit from Swim Ireland must wear this (or another branded suit of the same sponsor) for all of their races

11. Athlete Home Programme Club and/or Personal Provisions to Athlete

- i. All costs associated with travel (international & domestic) subsistence costs and hotel costs to the 2022 LEN European Junior Open Water Swimming Championships which is not covered by the holistic bursary as outlined in Section 10 will be met by the athlete's home programme club or by the athlete

12. Competitive Readiness

'Competitive Readiness' means the professional opinion of the National Performance Director following advice, where necessary, from a member/s of the Sport Ireland Institute Medical Team as to the ability of an athlete who has been selected to represent Ireland at the 2022 LEN European Junior Open Water Swimming Championships to achieve an equal or superior performance in the Open Water event over their performance achieved to qualify for invitation

- i. Athletes who, in the opinion of the National Performance Director do not remain Competitively Ready by reason of lack of fitness, injury, illness, application to training, performance behaviour or other reasons, may be deselected to the 2022 LEN European Junior Open Water Swimming Championships

- ii. Athletes and their home programme coaches shall immediately report any injury, illness, change in training, change in application to training and/or performance behaviour, that could affect their ability to compete at their highest level at the 2022 LEN European Junior Open Water Swimming Championships to the National Performance Director in writing, via e-mail
- iii. In the case of lack of fitness, injury or illness, it shall be necessary for the National Performance Director to consider recommendations made by a member/s of the Sport Ireland Institute Medical Team
- iv. In the case of application to training, or performance behaviour or other reasons, it shall not be necessary for the National Performance Director to seek recommendations from a member/s of the Sport Ireland Institute Medical Team
- v. In the case of lack of fitness, injury or illness, such athletes may be subject to a 'Proof of Readiness Test' to be determined by the National Performance Director and appropriate a member/s of the Sport Ireland Institute Medical Team. The Proof of Readiness test will consist of a controlled performance such as a competition or an observed test or a time trial
- vi. Athletes who are notified of a Competitive Readiness concern shall not travel to any Ireland representative swimming event until the opinion of the National Performance Director has been communicated to that athlete that the athlete does meet their opinion of Competitive Readiness. If the athlete is at the 2022 LEN European Junior Open Water Swimming Championships and the opinion is that the athlete is not Competitively Ready, then he or she may be required to return home immediately
- vii. The opinion on Competitive Readiness made by National Performance Director is final

13. Withdrawal & Removals

At any stage an athlete, coach or team manager may withdraw from representing Ireland at the 2022 LEN European Junior Open Water Swimming Championships but may only do so in extenuating circumstances

- i. An athlete, coach or team manager may be removed from:
 - a. Eligibility for nomination, or;
 - b. Nomination for invitation, or;
 - c. Invitation to represent Ireland for any of the following reasons:
 - Behaviour that is inconsistent with the National Team Code of Conduct. A copy of this document is available via performance@swimireland.ie;
 - found to be in violation of any anti-doping policy or procedure as outlined by Swim Ireland, Sport Ireland and/or the World Anti-Doping Agency (WADA);

 - decline invitation to or withdraw from the 2022 LEN European Junior Open Water Swimming Championships
- ii. An athlete may be removed from representing Ireland before or after nomination for invitation or before or after invitation if he/she, in the opinion of the National Performance Director does not have Competitive Readiness (Section 12)

14. Unforeseen Circumstances

- i. In the event that this Policy is silent on any matter which arises in the administration or application or interpretation of any invitation process or decision, then the National Selection Panel shall have discretion to determine any issue as they deem fit so long as it is exercised fairly and quickly

15. Amendments

- i. The Performance Senior Leadership Team reserves the right to make changes to this Policy which, in its discretion, are necessary
- ii. Any changes to this Policy shall be communicated via www.swimireland.ie

16. Appeals

- i. Any appeal against an invitation made by the National Selection Panel must be made in accordance with the Swim Ireland Invitation Appeals Procedures, available via www.swimireland.ie
- ii. Athletes should be aware of the strict time limits contained within the Swim Ireland Invitation Appeals Procedures, which are designed with the intention of resolving issues expediently and fairly
