

SWIMMING

Nomination Stage 1 (Individuals)

- a. Olympic Qualifying Time (OQT, formerly known as FINA 'A') at the 2023 World Aquatics Championships (50m) held in Fukuoka, Japan and;
- b. compete in the same individual event/s at the 2024 Irish Open Championships held in Dublin, Ireland to assure the National Performance Director of Competitive Readiness

Nomination Stage 2 (Individuals)

- a. Olympic Qualifying Time (OQT, formerly known as FINA 'A') at the 2024 World Aquatics Championships (50m) held in Doha, Qatar and;
- b. compete in the same individual event/s at the 2024 Irish Open Championships held in Dublin, Ireland to assure the National Performance Director of Competitive Readiness

Nomination Stage 3 (Individuals)

- a. Olympic Qualifying Time (OQT, formerly known as FINA 'A') at the 2024 Irish Open Championships (50m) held in Dublin, Ireland (with the date TBC)

Nomination Stage 4 (Relays)

- a. Irish National Team relay/s record performances at either:
 - the 2023 World Aquatics Championships (50m) held in Fukuoka, Japan or
 - the 2024 World Aquatics Championships (50m) held in Doha, Qatarwhich result in World Aquatics/IOC inviting Swim Ireland to enter a relay team(s) in accordance with their published relay qualification rules
- b. In the event that Swim Ireland is invited to accept a relay place(s) in accordance with World Aquatics/IOC relay qualification rules, the National Performance Director will have regard to the acceptance of that invitation subject to the number of individual event qualifiers that Team Ireland (Swimming) has at that time that allow us to field a competitive and credible relay in line with World Aquatics/IOC relay requirements

Nomination Stage 5 (Individuals)

- a. Achieve an Olympic Consideration Time (OCT, formerly known as FINA 'B') at either
 - the 2023 World Aquatics Championships (50m) in Fukuoka, Japan, or
 - the 2024 World Aquatics Championships (50m) in Doha, Qatar, or
 - the 2024 Irish Open Championships (50m) in Dublin, Ireland only and;
- b. be invited by World Aquatics to compete at the 2024 Olympic Games in the event where the OCT has been achieved

Priority Ordering

- a. Nominations for selection based on Nomination Stage 1 will take priority over all other Nomination Stages
- b. Nominations for selection based on Nomination Stage 2 will take priority over Nomination Stage 3 and Nomination Stage 5
- c. Nominations for selection based on Nomination Stage 3 will take priority over Nomination Stage 5

DIVING

Nomination Stage 1

- a. Individuals finish in a Top-12 position in the respective individual event at the 2023 World Aquatics Championships held in Fukuoka, Japan,
- b. Synchro teams finish in a Top-3 position (excluding the host nation) in the respective synchro event at the 2023 World Aquatics Championships held in Fukuoka, Japan

Nomination Stage 2

- a. Individuals & synchro teams finish in First position in the respective individual event at the 2023 EOC European Games held in Rzeszów, Poland

Nomination Stage 3

- a. Individuals finish within the 12 highest placing athletes within the respective individual event at the 2024 World Aquatics Championships held in Doha, Qatar. The total number of athletes qualified in this event shall not exceed the total maximum quota number of 136
- b. Additional quota places may be obtained by athletes for Team Ireland (Diving) but only until the quota in the respective event is filled and the total of 136 athletes is not exceeded. These additional quota places will be allocated to athletes placed 13th and higher at the 2024 World Aquatics Championships until the maximum number of 136 athletes is reached