

2023 WORLD AQUATICS CHAMPIONSHIPS

14th – 22nd July 2023, Fukuoka, Japan

SELECTION POLICY (Diving)

Introduction

This Policy provides two avenues by which an athlete can be selected to the Ireland National Team (“Ireland National Team”) for the 2023 World Aquatics Championships (Diving). These avenues (“Selection Stages”) are described in further detail below. In all circumstances, an athlete is selected to the Ireland National Team for the 2023 World Aquatics Championships (Diving) and not selected to a specific event. These avenues are described in further detail below.

This Policy will only apply if:

- 1. The 2023 World Aquatics Championships (Diving) are held on the existing dates of 14th July – 22nd July 2023 and/or are held in the existing location of Fukuoka, Japan. If there is any postponement of the 2023 World Aquatics Championships (Diving) beyond this period and/or a change of location, a new Selection Policy will be required.*
- 2. The 2023 British Swimming National Diving Cup is held on the existing dates of 2nd February – 5th February 2023. If there is any postponement of the 2023 British Swimming National Diving Cup beyond this period, a new Selection Policy will be required.*

This Policy sets out the Swim Ireland process for selecting athletes, additional coaches and/or team managers to:

- (a) be considered eligible for nomination for selection;*
- (b) be nominated for selection and;*
- (c) be selected to the Ireland National Team for swimming at the 2023 World Aquatics Championships (Diving) in Fukuoka, Japan*

Athletes, additional coaches, sports science/sports medicine practitioners and team managers must satisfy certain criteria to be considered eligible for nomination for selection.

In addition to the criteria for eligibility for selection, there are minimum qualification standards which an athlete needs to meet to be considered for selection by the National Selection Panel. At the completion of the “Selection Stages”, the 2023 World Aquatics Championships shall be considered to be a selected athlete’s summer international benchmark meet for the 2022-2023 season.

The role of the National Performance Director is to compile the names of athletes, additional coaches, sports science/sports medicine practitioners and team managers who meet the criteria for nomination for selection and to make recommendations to the National Selection Panel (athletes) and the Diving Leadership Team (additional coaches, sports science/sports medicine practitioners and team managers).

The National Selection Panel is the expert panel, as defined in the ‘Swim Ireland Selection Panel Terms of Reference’ which selects athletes to the Ireland National Team.

The Diving Leadership Team comprises of the National Performance Director, the National Head Coach (Diving), the Performance Manager, the Head of Physical Preparation and the Head of Performance Analysis and is the expert group which selects additional coaches, team managers and sports science/sports medicine practitioners to the Irish Team.

World Aquatics is the international federation/governing body administering international competition in aquatic sports.

1. Nomination for Selection

- i. The National Performance Director will nominate athletes to the National Selection Panel for selection to individual events for the Ireland National Team as expediently as possible following the conclusion of the relevant Selection Stages as described below.*
- ii. Individual Events*
To be considered eligible for nomination to the Ireland National Team via an individual event/s, athletes must:
 - a. Satisfy the conditions and standards set out in Selection Stage 1 or 2; and*
 - b. Meet the athlete eligibility criteria set out in Section 3 below.*
- iii. Synchro and Mix Team events*
To be considered eligible for nomination to the Ireland National Team for a synchro event/s or Mix Team event, athletes must:
 - a. Be nominated for selection in an individual event*
 - b. Meet the athlete eligibility criteria set out in Section 3 below.*

As such, sports science/sports medicine practitioners may not be required/selected

17. Ireland National Team Obligations (General)

In accepting a selection to the Ireland National Team for the 2023 World Aquatics Championships (Diving), athletes accept and agree that training with/competing for the Ireland National Team takes precedence over training for/competing in any other competition, including that for another Team/Club or University programme in Ireland or anywhere in the world. Swim Ireland require any athlete, coach, sports science/sports medicine practitioner or team manager who has been selected to represent the Ireland National Team at the 2023 World Aquatics Championships (Diving) to meet and fulfil a suite of obligations, where non-adherence is subject to Section 19. Swim Ireland oblige all selected athletes and, where relevant, all Ireland National Team staff to:

- i. Agree not to disclose any selected Ireland National Team member name to the press or any other media (including their own social media) until Swim Ireland have themselves announced this to the press and other media
- ii. Compete in other National Team events in 2023 (if selected and required to do so by the National Performance Director)
- iii. Complete, sign and comply with the Swim Ireland National Team Code of Conduct
- iv. Complete a Swim Ireland Medical Form prior to competing at the 2023 World Aquatics Championships (Diving)
- v. Commit to the values of the Swim Ireland National Programme Athlete Charter
- vi. Abide by the Uniform Policy, the Media Policy, the Appearances Policy, the Betting, Gambling & Integrity Policy and the Sports Supplements Policy of the Swim Ireland National Team
- vii. At the date of the decision of the National Selection Panel of selections, all Ireland National Team athletes must ensure that they are making the required Kitman submission each training/competition day

- xi. Make themselves available for all Ireland National Team activities designated by the National Performance Director (including, but not limited to, any associated Ireland National Team camps) as part of or in addition to the National Programme or Regional Programme. No Team member will be allowed to leave a National Team camp or undertake any activities that are not directly relevant to the Ireland National Team camp, including any external media, sponsor or social activities. Under exceptional circumstances, written approval to be excluded from activities can be given by the National Performance Director

14th – 22nd July 2023, Fukuoka, Japan

SELECTION POLICY (Diving)

18. Team Uniform/Kit

- i. All Team uniform and kit will be provided for and to the Team by Swim Ireland
- ii. Athletes accepting kit from Swim Ireland must wear them (or another branded suit of the same sponsor) for all of their events. Athletes may exercise 'freedom of choice' in the wearing of a non-sponsor suit, but such a suit must be unbranded

19. Competitive Readiness

'Competitive Readiness' means the combined professional opinion of the National Performance Director and National Head Coach (Diving) following advice, where necessary, from a member/s of the Sport Ireland Institute Medical Team as to the ability of an athlete who has been selected to represent the Ireland National Team at the 2023 World Aquatics Championships (Diving) to achieve an expected performance in their selected Olympic event(s) in relation to their performance achieved to qualify for selection

- i. Athletes who, in the opinion of the National Performance Director and National head Coach (Diving), do not remain Competitively Ready by reason of lack of fitness, injury, illness, application to training, performance behaviour or other reasons, may be removed from the Ireland National Team
- ii. Athletes and their home programme coaches shall immediately report any injury, illness, change in training, change in application to training and/or performance behaviour, that could affect their ability to compete at their highest level at the 2023 World Aquatics Championships (Diving), to the National Performance Director and the National Head Coach (Diving) in writing, via e-mail
- iii. In the case of lack of fitness, injury or illness, it shall be necessary for the National Performance Director and National Head Coach (Diving) to consider recommendations made by a member/s of the Sport Ireland Institute Medical Team
- iv. In the case of application to training, or performance behaviour or other reasons, it shall not be necessary for the National Performance Director and National head Coach (Diving) to seek recommendations from a member/s of the Sport Ireland Institute Medical Team
- v. In the case of lack of fitness, injury or illness, such athletes may be subject to a 'Proof of Readiness Test' to be determined by the National Performance Director, the National Head Coach (Diving) and appropriate member/s of the Sport Ireland Institute Medical Team. The Proof of Readiness test will consist of a controlled performance such as a competition or an observed test
- vi. Athletes who are notified of a Competitive Readiness concern shall not travel with the Ireland National Team to any National Team event including the 2023 World Aquatics Championships (Diving) and/or an associated Holding Camp, unless and until the opinion of the National Performance Director and National head Coach (Diving) has been communicated to that athlete that the athlete does meet their opinion of Competitive Readiness. If the athlete is at either the 2023 World Aquatics Championships (Diving) or the associated Holding Camp and the opinion is that the athlete is not Competitively Ready, then he or she may be required to return home immediately
- vii. The opinion on Competitive Readiness made by National Performance Director and National head Coach (Diving) is final

20. Withdrawal & Removals

At any stage an athlete, team coach, team manager or sports science/sports medicine practitioner may withdraw from the Ireland National Team but may only do so in extenuating circumstances

- i. An athlete, team coach, team manager or sports science/sports medicine practitioner may be removed from:
 - a. Eligibility for nomination, or;
 - b. Nomination for selection, or;
 - c. Selection to the Ireland National Team for any of the following reasons:
 - Behaviour that is inconsistent with the National Team Code of Conduct. A copy of this document is available via performance@swimireland.ie;
 - found to be in violation of any anti-doping policy or procedure as outlined by Swim Ireland, Sport Ireland and/or the World Anti-Doping Agency (WADA);
 - unable or unwilling to fully comply with the Ireland National Team Obligations (Section 17)
 - decline selection to or withdraw from the 2023 World Aquatics Championships (Diving)
- ii. An athlete may be removed from the Ireland National Team before or after nomination for selection or before or after selection if he/she, in the opinion of the National Performance Director and National Senior Team Head Coach/s, does not have Competitive Readiness (Section 19)

2023 WORLD AQUATICS CHAMPIONSHIPS

14th – 22nd July 2023, Fukuoka, Japan

SELECTION POLICY (Diving)

21. Replacement or Addition

- i. If an athlete, team coach, team manager or sports science/sports medicine practitioner is removed from or withdraws from the Ireland National Team, that individual may be replaced by another eligible individual who meets the required standards set out in this Policy
- ii. The National Performance Director, where in his opinion it is in the best interests of the Ireland National Team, may recommend that any number of additional athletes, team coaches, team managers and/or sports science/sports medicine practitioners be added to the selected Ireland National Team, subject to such additional individuals meeting the required standards set out in this Policy
- iii. Any replacement or addition of an individual to the Ireland National Team shall be made by way of nomination by the National Performance Director, and which nomination is approved by the National Selection Panel (in the case of athletes) or the Diving Leadership Team (in the case of team coaches, team managers and/or sports science/sports medicine practitioners)

22. Unforeseen Circumstances

- i. In the event that this Policy is silent on any matter which arises in the administration or application or interpretation of any selection process or decision, then the National Selection Panel shall have discretion to determine any issue as they deem fit so long as it is exercised fairly and quickly

23. Amendments

- i. The Diving Leadership Team reserves the right to make changes to this Policy which, in its discretion, are necessary. No such changes shall be made after the commencement of the 2023 British Swimming National Diving Cup, unless the changes relate to the National Selection Panel exercising its discretion under the 'Unforeseen Circumstances' provisions (Section 22)
- ii. The Diving Leadership Team reserves the right to review and modify this Policy or a decision related to the selection process in the case of rule or policy changes from World Aquatics that affect the criteria set out in this Policy
- iii. Any changes to this Policy shall be communicated via www.swimireland.ie

24. Appeals

- i. Any appeal against a selection made by the National Selection Panel must be made in accordance with the Swim Ireland Selection Appeals Procedures, available via www.swimireland.ie
- ii. Athletes should be aware of the strict time limits contained within the Swim Ireland Selection Appeals Procedures, which are designed with the intention of resolving issues expediently and fairly
