When a meeting is adjourned for fourteen (14) days or more, at least seven (7) Clear Days notice shall be given specifying the time and place of the adjourned meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. Otherwise it shall not be necessary to give any such notice.

A poll shall be taken as the chairperson of the meeting directs and he may appoint scrutineers (who need not be Members) and fix a time and place for declaring the result of the poll. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
53. Where a resolution(s) to amend the Company's memorandum of association and/or its articles of association is successful at a Company AGM, that resolution shall have immediate effect from the conclusion of such meeting.
54. A poll on the election of a chairperson of the meeting or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken either forthwith or at such time and place as the chairperson of the meeting directs not being more than thirty (30) days after the meeting. The taking of a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll is taken.
55. No notice need be given of a poll not taken forthwith if the time and place at which it is to be taken are announced at the meeting. In any other case at least seven (7) Clear Days notice shall be given specifying the time and place at which the poll is to be taken.

Each such proposition shall deal with one subject only;
- (b) the Board may alter or amend or disallow any proposition or motion which offends against either or both of the memorandum of association and/or the articles of association of the Company and/or which the Board considers may either bring the sport into disrepute and/or be against the best interests of the Company, and may composite any two (2) or more propositions which, in the opinion of the Board, constitute in substance the same proposition or which deal with the same subject matter and are to the same effect. The Board shall inform, in writing, any Clubs whose proposition is altered, amended, composited or disallowed in accordance with this sub-paragraph (b) of this Article 58 and shall then arrange for the final AGM agenda to be prepared and furnished to each person entitled to receipt of notice in accordance with these Articles not later than twenty- one (21) Clear Days before the dated fixed for holding the AGM; and

For the avoidance of doubt, this may permit an individual to serve a total maximum consecutive period of seven years on the Board. The period of time served by any Chairperson on the Board prior to the adoption of these Articles shall be taken into account in determining the maximum term.

68. No person shall serve more than 12 years on the Board over the course of their lifetime, whether consecutive or not.

69. In addition, the Board shall have power at any time and from time to time, by majority resolution of the Board, to:
